

ETERNITY..... AND THE CITY

European Photography 2009

Program

Day 1 – Saturday:

In the morning, arrival in Reggio Emilia and check-in at your hotel.

Soon after the check-in, you may want to start your visit (no guide included) of the European Photography exhibitions held in different locations throughout the city center.

In the afternoon, continue the visit of the exhibitions and make sure to find some time to admire the permanent contemporary art exhibits that are part of “Invito A – Invitation To” *.

Dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight at your hotel.

Day 2 – Sunday:

Breakfast at your hotel

In the morning, visit (no guide included) of the exhibition: “Joan Mitchell, 1926– 1992”, which is held at Palazzo Magnani.

Lunch at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, you may wish to continue your visit of the exhibitions part of European Photography and of the historical city center.

Validity: Weekends only from April 30th thru June 7th 2009.

Rates: Starting from Euro 120,00 per person in double room 4-Star Hotels and from Euro 110.00 per person in double room 3-Star Hotels.

Rates include: Continental Breakfast, 1 dinner and 1 lunch at prefixed menus.

Rates don't include: transfers, transportation, admission to the exhibitions, guided tours, tips and everything not specifically indicated under “Rates include”.

Notes: * The permanent contemporary art exhibits that make up “Invito A – Invitation To” are: “Less Than” by Robert Morris (c/o San Domenico Cloisters), “Sol LeWitt – Whirls and Twirls” by Sol LeWitt (c/o Panizzi Public Library), “The Arab Phoenix” by Luciano Fabro (c/o University of Modena and Reggio), and “Dance of Stars and Planets” by Eliseo Mattiacci (c/o La Fonderia , National Dance Foundation).

For information and reservations please contact: Club di Prodotto Reggio Tricolore, Via Giglioli Valle 10, 42100 Reggio Emilia tel. 0522/708713-708511 E-mail: clubdiprodotto@ascomre.com, Web: www.reggiotricolore.com